are urged to follow the example of thousands of heir sisters and take Cardui. Cardui is a nonmineral, non-intoxicating medicine for women. It s for sick, weak ladies, with sick female organs.

It Will Help You

It is a genuine, curative medicine, that builds up the female system and relieves female pain.

Mrs. M. A. St. Clair, of Eskdale, W. Va., writes: "Before taking Cardui, I had given up all hope of getting well. I had suffered for 3 years with my eft side and was confined to my bed, so I took Cardui, and now Cardui has about cured my female trouble."

GIRL SLAIN ON EVE OF WED-DING.

With unusual energy the police authorities of Wadsworth, O., are endeavoring to unraval the mystery of the murder of Ora Lee, 21 year old, a handsome factory girl, whose body, pierced by two bullets, was found early yester-day on the road between Wadsworth and the hamlet of Custard Hook.

Guy Rasor, the man whom Miss Lee was to have married today, is detained by the police pending developments in an investigation. Rasor denies all knowledge of the tragedy, and in sup-port of his denial exhibits a marriage license procured at Woos'er on Thurday. icense procured at Wooster on Thurday. No positive motive for the murder of the young woman has come to light. The band of farmers, that burried to the scene of the murder as soon as word of the tragedy was received, met Gay Resor on the road walking toward Wads-

The police theory is that Miss Lee was killed while riding in a buggy with a male friend. The principal clew that led to the detention of Guy Rasor is the fact that slong the road where the mur-der was committed are plainly seen the tracks of a horse with one shoe missing. An examination of the stables at the Rasor home disclosed the fact that one of Rasor's horses has a shoe missing from one of its front feet. Rasor re-fuses any explanation concerning this festure of the case. He declares he can prove an alibi. Another police theory is that a rival for the affections of Miss Lee may have shot the girl on learning of her approaching marriage to Rasor.

Miss Lee left Wadsworth on Thursdry ostensibly to prepare for her wedding. When the body was found the hands were folded over her breast and the legs straightened out as if the corpse had been carefully arranged after death. The girl's suitcase was on the ground beside her. Her handbag was still on her right wrist, and in her left hand she clutched a handkerchief. There was no evidence of a struggle. A hundred yards from the body tracks in the dust ndicated where a horse and buggy had been hitched to the fence.

Rasor apparently is bowed with grief. He declares the last time he saw his fiance was Wednesday night, when they went driving.

RULING FOR LIQUOR MEN. Commissioner of Internal Revenue Capers has rendered a decision which will put a stop to the practice among some rectifiers and wholesale liquor dealers of selling the same brand of whisky under different names.

The new ruling is that "any person firm or corporation carrying on business as rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer at one place or time under different names must psy a separate special tax for each name or style under which the business

This is a reversal of the ruling of former Commissioner Yerkes, and is the result of the careful watch kept in probibition states on whisky shipments. When the brand of the whisky shipped be-comes too well known it often leads to the prevention of further shipments. was found that when such prevention be-comes effective, other lots of whisky are shipped into these states by the same dealer under other names. This trick led to action on the part of the internal
